NEWS OF KANSAS.

Charges of Gross Corruption
Against Wichita Police.

They in Turn Accuse County
Attorney of Boondoggery.

OTHER STATE NEWS.

Ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker Sued.

WICHITA, Sept. 8.—The war which has been commenced on the saloons, has already resulted in an open rupture between the county attorney and the police department which bids fair to disclose a huge scandal.

County Attorney Boone says the police have been bleeding liquor sellers and withholding the money from the city and the police retaliate by charging that Boone is now trying to bleed the joint men for a good round sum, preparatory to resigning from office.

Boone is a Democrat elected by the aid of Populists, and Republicans are standing by enjoying the fight in the opposition ranks.

Meanwhile the liquor men have joined forces, and declare that they won't submit to any further squeezing from the department, and they also declare their intentions to bring proceedings against County Attorney Boone for impeachment. The occupants of the county attorney's office say Boone will not be the only official placed under the charge of malfeasance.

Today the police commissioners met and declined to exact more fines from violators of the prohibitory and gambling laws.

These fines have heretofore gone to the police pay roll and the commissioners hope by this move to force the authorities, who will have to find money elsewhere, to pay the police.

The appointment of an assistant attorney general is looked for and serious charges of corruption are expected to be filed against officials very soon.

THEY HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

Two Leavenworth Young Women Nearly Drown in New Mexico.

LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 8.—Ex-Gov. T. Crittenden of Kansas City, consul general to Mexico, who arrived at his home yesterday, tells of a very narrow escape from death experienced Tuesday last by two young ladies of Leavenworth. Miss Lillian Steir and Miss Marion Schuster were visiting a brother-in-law near San Antonio, N. M. Tuesday they, with two other passengers—Mr. William H. Yankee, formerly of Pettis county, Missouri, now of Denver, and a Mr. Watson of Albuquerque—were fording the Rio Grande in a stage coach. The driver missed his bearings and got into quicksand.

The stage began to sink rapidly and one of the ladies was drowned. Misses Steir and Schuster would have shared the same fate had not Messrs. Yankee and Watson rescued them. Each man carried one of the young women to shore. The young women were fellow passengers on the home trip with Gov. and Mrs. Crittenden and arrived here last night.

GOT ON THE WIDOW'S BLIND SIDE.

A Smooth Young Man Got the Benefit of Her Insurance Money.

FT. SCOTT, Sept. 8.—Ralph L. Roberts of Fulton, Kan., who was arrested in Kansas City Wednesday by Detectives Hayes and Ennis on suspicion, was tried for vagrancy in the police court yesterday morning and fined $25.

Roberts went to Kansas City about a week ago from Joplin, Mo. He was accompanied by Mrs. Louise Jones, a young widow and Lida Graham, a girl who was employed as domestic by Mrs. Jones. The widow is blind and recently received $2,000 life insurance which was carried by her husband. She has spent a large portion of the money on Roberts, with whom she is much in love.

Mrs. Jones did not know the Graham woman was with Roberts until told so by the detectives last night. The girl remained silent on the journey from Fulton and as Mrs. Jones could not see she did not know of her presence. Roberts took the widow to the Brewster hotel and installed the girl in the Fifth Avenue hotel. Mrs. Jones is a girl of 34 years old and says that Roberts promised frequently to marry her. The Graham girl is only 18.

TRAMPS SLASH ONE ANOTHER.

A Violent Fight at Arkansas City With Knives and Razors.

ARKANSAS CITY, Sept. 8.—A gang here of six tramps got into a quarrel, and one of them, Charles Rheinhardt, was cut badly. William Wright, sr., and Charles Rheinhardt used knives or razors, and the latter got decidedly the worst of it. Wright got a vicious cut under the left shoulder, and he in turn cut Rheinhardt across the stomach, letting his entrails out.

After being cut, Rheinhardt started to run to the depot, holding his entrails in his hands. He arrived at the platform and fell down. Agent Addington and Sam Burress took revolvers and started after the gang, which had commenced to scatter. They soon rounded them up and turned them over to Policeman McIntire.

There is a cut of ten inches across Rheinhardt's stomach. It is thought the injuries will be fatal.

The following tramps were arrested and jailed as being implicated: Wm. Wright, sr., and Wm. Wright, jr., Luke Couligan, Martin Moore, Joe Miller and Henry Reynolds.

DEFICIENT IN CHEST MEASUREMENT.

Only Four Out of Seventeen Passed Promotion Examination at Ft. Leavenworth.

LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 8.—At Fort Leavenworth today the physical examination of seventeen non-commissioned officers for promotion to lieutenants was held, and only four of them were passed by the surgeons. Thirteen of them were found deficient in the chest measurement prescribed by the regulations, and unless the examining board can help them out in some way they can never be promoted.

Over half of the class are sons of the officers, and their failure to pass caused quite a stir in army circles at the garrison. Members of the class are from all over the United States, and most of them have been studying for years to rise from the ranks. An effort will be made to get around the physical point they were rejected on and all of them may yet get through.

FELL FROM A MOVING TRAIN.

A. C. Colbert of Kansas City Fatally Injured Between Sedgewick and Wichita.

WICHITA, Sept. 8.—A. C. Colbert of Kansas City was fatally injured between Wichita and Sedgewick by falling from a freight train while going under a fall head of steam.

Colbert was in a box car and was seen to fall out. The train was stopped and the young man was picked up in a semi-conscious condition. He was barely able to tell his name and where his home was. He was terribly crushed about the heart and lung and was evidently bleeding profusely internally.

JOHN WANAMAKER SUED.

A Ft. Scott Man Sues the Ex-Postmaster
General for the Recovery of a Farm.

FT. SCOTT, Sept. 8.—Grant Hornaday has brought suit against James H. Haines and wife and John Wanamaker and wife for the recovery of $800 alleged to be due for the possession of an eighty acre farm adjoining Davon. The plaintiff asks for $100 damages by being denied the possession of the farm, and for $500 as rentals and income of the farm for two years. John Wanamaker is a distinguished defendant. He is the general manager of the store in this city, and this is the second time he has been sued in Bourbon county in the last year.

TRUST KNOCKED IT OUT.

The Ottawa Cracker Factory Forced to Quit Business.

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—W. H. Work yesterday made a bill of sale of his cracker and candy factory to A. C. Maxson of the stone mills. Mr. Work's business, which is directly traceable to the operations of the cracker trust, that combine having flooded the field with goods so preposterously low that minor enterprises could not possibly compete.

DROWNED IN A BUCKET.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 8.—The little two-year-old baby girl of Mrs. Brankvold of 18 South Water street fell into a bucket of water and was drowned about 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The baby was playing, splashing water in a butter bucket which stood in the back yard. The mother thought the baby was very quiet so she went to the door and looking out saw her little girl standing on her head in the bucket of water.

WANTS $8,000 FOR HIS WIFE'S AFFECTION.

FT. SCOTT, Sept. 8.—A damage suit of unusually sensational features was filed in the district court last night. W. A. Gibbs, a well known and loved citizen of Hlatville, brings action against A. M. Routh, one of the leading merchants of that place, for $8,000 damages by the alleged alienation of his wife's affections.

The Remains of Geo. A. Eddy.

LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 8.—The remains of the late George A. Eddy arrived here from Colorado via the Santa Fe road at 6:05 last evening in charge of the family and a few friends. The funeral arrangements have not been announced. It is thought, however, it will not occur till Sunday. The body was embalmed before leaving Colorado.

DIDN'T LIVE FOR THE DIVORCE.

WICHITA, Sept. 8.—Mrs. E. M. Fitzroy is dead from the effects of poisoning administered by herself. Her husband left her a short time ago and divorce proceedings had been commenced by her. The case was to have been heard today, but yesterday she told a friend she could not live through the trouble.

Returned for Trial.

FT. SCOTT, Sept. 8.—Sam Brown, the colored high school graduate, for whom a United States warrant has been outstanding for a year, charging him with sending obscene letters through the mails, has returned to Ft. Scott to stand trial.

Ingalls Speaks at Halstead.

HALSTEAD, Sept. 8.—The Republicans are holding a big picnic here today. Senator Ingalls is the chief speaker. J. W. Ady presides and Chester L. Long and Senator Danner will speak.

Crushed by a Train.

SENECA, Sept. 8.—John Tatlow was struck by a freight train east of this place yesterday afternoon, crushing his shoulder and arm.

Our Topeka Races to be Better Than
